Girls' Basketball Team 1931

The girls' basketball team had a very successful season this year. The team showed clean sportsmanship from start to finish in every game at home and away. The members of the team were wide awake and played a snappy hand at ball throughout the season. Especially did they show the old P. H. A. spirit when they played Livingston in the district tournament at Cookeville, March 5, 1931.

Coach Morris deserves much credit for shaping such a team as this from practically raw material.

Personnel:

Second Row (Left to right): Coach Morris, Bernice Beam, Katherine Slatton, Manager Little.

Boys' Basketball Team 1931

The team work and spirit that was shown in football still continued throughout basketball season. With material and experience being scanty, a fine team was organized out of an inexperienced group of boys. Never was the team discouraged because of its opponent's superiority. The boys always showed the fighting spirit, the spirit that put Pleasant Hill Academy on the Athletic Map and keeps her there. In the first game we suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of York Institute, but later in the season this defeat was avenged.

The record is as follows:

P. H. A. ....	8	..... York Institute	38
P. H. A. ....	32	..... Cumberland Mountain	28
P. H. A. ....	26	..... Crossville	22

MUSIC

The girls' Glee Club for the year 1930-31 was divided into two sections, one composed of twenty girls, the other of twelve.

The first section presented, on February 26th, a lovely operetta "The Nifty Shop". As a fitting introduction Virginia Morton sang "Danny Boy" and "The Banjo Song". The cast of the operetta is as follows:

First Row—Bernice Beam, Rosetta Hyder, Beryl Beam, Grace Dodson, Martha Lou Hale, Gladys Coots, Novella Stone, Nell Donelson.

Second Row—Miss Richardson, Director; Alice Phillips, Irene Cooley, Priscilla Green, Dorothy Fleming, Lillie Mae Sherrill, Minnie Tanner, Nettie Thompson, Gladys Jones, Irene Green, Mildred Fox.

The second section of the Glee Club went to Nashville on April 2, 1931, to compete in the state contest. In this competition were schools from Murfreesboro and Gallatin. The Pleasant Hill girls did a very commendable piece of work. They did not place first or second but were given honorable mention. They sang the contest song "Calm as the Night" by Bohn and an optional selection "The Pipes o' Pan" by Baines.

The last of April the entire club went to Crossville to re-present the programs done previously.

The entire Glee Club was under the direction of Miss Mary Richardson.

The members of the chorus are:

Left to right:—Rosetta Hyder, Beryl Beam, Mildred Fox, Dorothy Fleming, Nannie Bohannon, Virginia Morton, Minnie Tanner, Martha Lou Hale, Gladys Coots, Agnes Page, Nettie Thompson, Hilda Vaughn.

The Choir, under the direction of Miss Mary Richardson, added much to the Sunday morning services during the year. Solos, duets, and anthems of suitable nature were sung often.

On Easter and Christmas special numbers made the occasions impressive. On Easter morning the Choir went about town singing carols before the sunrise service at Miss Scott's.

Baccalaureate Sunday morning and at the Wheeler Memorial service in the afternoon the Choir furnished appropriate music, thus adding beauty to the services.

CLASS HISTORY '31

Four years ago we began our Freshman year of High School at Pleasant Hill Academy. There were about thirty students in our class. We had the reputation of being the meanest and most mischievous of any Freshman class in Pleasant Hill Academy for several years.

The English and Algebra classes were divided into two groups for the first time. Each year since then those two classes have been divided. There were four boys, Dick Stockton, Frank Newell, Winfred Coots, and Clyde Brown who were perfect clowns. They led the teachers a merry life and the classes were not lacking in excitement. In this year the new dormitory, Roberts Hall, was completed and the boys were glad to move from Pioneer Hall into it.

By our Sophomore year we had lost about ten students. Some went to other schools and some quit school and went to work. We gained four new students, Lillie Austin, Varina Raulston, V. J. Edney, and Felson Cotten. Nettie Thompson left our class for the first half of the year and went to Sparta. She was more than ready to return to our class at the beginning of the second semester. Most of the boys were on the baseball team and their chief joy in life was to be refused a cut from History the last period of the day.

We had the same number in the class our Junior year as we started with Sophomore year. We lost nine and gained nine new ones, Mildred Fox, Virginia Morton, Louise England and Carl Stephens, four who have stayed with us to the end. Three of our classmates, Gladys Tanner, Levitte Greene and Alla Mae Clouse were happily married and did not return. Eugene Cole and Norman Hale decided to work instead of returning to school.

We as Seniors are a class of seventeen members. Twelve of our present group have pulled and worked together since our Freshman year, one joined us our Sophomore year and four our Junior year. Our social life has increased this year. We have had many parties, picnics and socials which we will long remember. We will look back upon them as a part of our education. We feel that we have had an unusual record, with a class that began with so much meanness and mischief, for agreeing on all important decisions regarding officers, the Senior play, and the Annual. But we broke the record by seriously disagreeing on the color of the Commencement announcements. The girls were nearly albino and the boys dark brown in hue.

We have left our childish ways behind and hope we are better prepared to meet the responsibilities of life after having gone to Pleasant Hill Academy these four years.

We appreciate all that our president, George Little, and Sponsor, Mrs. Albert H. Smith, have done for our class. We shall long remember them and what they have contributed to the class.

MINNIE TANNER, Class Historian.

CLASS PROPHECY

One evening in the year 1941, I found myself wandering down the streets of Tokyo, Japan. It was during the Feast of Lanterns and the streets were crowded with people on their way to the celebration. I decided to follow.

I sought a secluded spot and sat down to watch the beautiful lighted Japanese Lanterns. Before long my thoughts wandered to Pleasant Hill Academy and the class of '31.

Suddenly the Japanese lantern near seemed to grow larger. Startled I jumped to my feet. About the same time a wee Japanese lady appeared. She asked if I would like to see what had happened to my classmates. She was from the land of "Dreams Come True" and had to return at midnight.

This is what I saw on our visit to the Lanterns:

On a concert stage Virginia Morton playing a harp.

Mildred Fox in a class-room in Italy, the land of Romance, teaching Latin.

Herman Smith driving to the city with a load of vegetables, for Herman was a farmer.

Nell Donelson in charge of a dog kennel. The name of her favorite hound was "Brownie."

Leeman Pack standing before Grandview School, of which he was Principal, directing a group of boys in the art of raising chickens.

Nettye Thompson in her own dressmaking "Shoppe in Paris". Mary Louise England was there purchasing her trousseau, for her marriage to the Prince of Wales was drawing near.

Minnie Tanner at the gate of a lovely bungalow near Clifty.

Felson Cotten, a minister hastening to work in his lily garden.

Rufus Dodson, a great surgeon, performing an operation, assisted by Dorothy Fleming, a trained nurse.

Joe Slatton, an actor living in Hollywood.

George Little in an observatory peering through a telescope at the stars.

Delbert Smith, a lawyer arguing a case in court.

Nannie Randolph pouring tea at a faculty party at P. H. A.

Carl Stephens ready to go into the boxing-ring, but while waiting was reading a book, "Amazing Grace."

MARTHA LOU HALE.

CLASS WILL OF '31

The Senior class before you, being of sound mind but about to separate and scatter into parts unknown, will say farewell.

First we request that our memory as a brilliant class be ever kept green; that the good deeds we have performed regularly retold, that they may go down as a shining example to coming generations; that our bad or careless deeds be carefully covered up and as quickly as possible forgotten.

The president of this class is hereby authorized to appoint a committee to secrete or destroy all class records.

To the Junior class we bequeath the use of this room with all its supplies and furnishings for a period of one year.

To the Faculty we bequeath an unbroken succession of unbroken nights and peaceful dreams.

To our beloved Principal we bequeath our sincere affections and most hearty gratitude.

To Gladys Jones and Lillie Mae Sherrill, Herman Smith wills the lead pencil which has been well worn by Delbert Smith in writing notes. They must use it at least once a year in writing to Novella Stone.

To Coy Scarbro and John Fugate, Mildred Fox wills the rear right-hand corner of this room, a good place to eat, nap, etc.

Carl Stephens wills room 27 plus the closet on the right to Dan Sims, suggesting that he use it instead of the floor as a resting place for his hat.

Joe Slatton wills to Attie Evans a Chemistry book with all the problems and the questions worked out and answered in detail.

Rufus Dodson has a well loved grammar which he wills to Fred Beam.

George Little wills all discarded Kentucky chewing tobacco to Herman Duke and Herbert Thompson.

Nettye Thompson leaves her love to Bertha Lemons and Lillie Elmore.

Leeman Pack wills to Bud Barnes any gum that he has left adhering to desks.

Martha Lou Hale wills her Northern English to Grace Dodson and Rosetta Hyder.

Louise England wills her love for George Little to Agnes Page, Hilda Vaughn, Elizabeth Cole, Elsie Howard, and Priscilla Greene.

Nannie Mae Randolph wills her high marks to Eugene Cole and James Evans.

Nell Donelson wills the kitchen to Ryland Ramsey and Alberta Burden with the following advise, "Work to please Mrs. Prand."

Virginia Morton wills her little smile to Verna Richardson.

Minnie Tanner wills her soft voice to Ella Elmore.

Dorothy Fleming wills her melodious talk to Marie Chastain.

Felson Cotten wills to Buena Rockwell the following advice, "Cultivate determination".

Signed and sealed under our hand, May 18, 1931.
